“Can a mother forget the baby at her breast
and have no compassion on the child she has borne?
Though she may forget,
I will not forget you!
See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands;
your walls are ever before me.”

Isaiah 49:15-16

Whoever conceals their sins does not prosper,
but the one who confesses and renounces them finds mercy.

Proverbs 28:13

Blessed is the one
whose transgressions are forgiven,
whose sins are covered.

Blessed is the one
whose sin the Lord does not count against them
and in whose spirit is no deceit.

When I kept silent,
my bones wasted away
through my groaning all day long.

For day and night
your hand was heavy on me;
my strength was sapped
as in the heat of summer...

Therefore let all the faithful pray to you
while you may be found;
surely the rising of the mighty waters
will not reach them.

You are my hiding place;
you will protect me from trouble
and surround me with songs of deliverance.

Psalm 32:1-7

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- 1) Besides self-sacrifice, perspective, and good character, what do you admire in people? Can you think of a story of a hero with these traits?
- 2) Can you share a time you had to make a really difficult choice?
- 3) Has abortion been part of your life story or that of anybody you know?
- 4) How can we help support those around us facing challenging pregnancies?
- 5) Must we confess our sin in order to receive forgiveness?
